Box 4-5-9 Winter 2017 – A.A. and Technology – December 2017

This issue features a number of articles on the topic of technology and how A.A. members and groups are using it to carry the message. The issue also features an article on La Viña, A.A.'s Spanish-language magazine — how it got its start and how it continues as a vital link connecting one alcoholic to another.

A New Freedom (DVD) – 2017

Filmed inside correctional facilities in the US and Canada, this 30 minute video features a diverse group of A.A. members who are incarcerated and staying sober

Safety Card for A.A. Groups – July 2017

Contains the long form of Tradition One and a suggested statement on Safety. May be read out loud at A.A. meetings as part of opening announcements or at the secretary's break.

Accessibilities Checklist for Meetings and Groups – February 2017

This is a guide to help diminish the trials that people with access barriers may encounter in attending meetings in your location.

Safety and A.A.: Our Common Welfare – February 2017

Safety is an important issue within A.A. — one that all groups and members can address to develop workable solutions and help keep our meetings safe based on the fundamental principles of the Fellowship.

Grapevine's New Book - Voices of Women in AA - Added September 2017 - A collection of 61 stories from Grapevine. The book begins with articles by or about women who contributed to AA early in its history, followed by stories by some of the program's earliest female members. Sections are devoted to spirituality, sponsorship, life changes, relationships, family, careers and friendships. The collection concludes with a chapter devoted to women's meetings. The stories demonstrate the various ways women alcoholics—often with great courage—find sobriety in AA and embrace the program to live rich and rewarding lives.. $11.50 ($10.99 for 5 or more copies) <https://store.aagrapevine.org>
